* Description	This course is offered as one of the major language-skill-oriented courses for German majors. Students will improve their reading comprehension by learning reading skills and reading articles of a variety of topics and genres. They will have a better understanding of words and grammar already learned through fundamental courses, enlarge vocabulary and know more about the German culture. With extensive reading, they can also have a keener interest in learning German, an acuter sense of the language and a deeper understanding of its features.
