

Course Information
Course Code	EN367	* Credit Hours	64	* Credits	4
* Course Name	Business English—Viewing, Listening and Speaking
(Course Type)	/Mandatory
Target Audience	/ Third-grade English major undergraduates
(Language of Instruction)	/ English
* School	/ School of Foreign Languages
Prerequisite
Instructor			(Course Webpage)
* Description
* Description	The purpose of this course is to help non-native English speakers to communicate effectively with native speakers in business situations. Each module is built around different business communication skills, such as business daily routines, business practices, jobs and interviews and business presentation. Topics that will be covered include: face-to-face communication, on the phone, business trip and entertainment, organizational structure, leadership, corporate culture, advertising and marketing, job hunting and interviews, presenting business ideas and so on. In all the communicative activities, students will be required to deal with particular business problems, develop creative solutions, and persuade others to adopt the solutions.

	Upon completing this course, students will be able to recognize the style of communication most frequently used to present information in English business situations, use the linear style of communication when expressing ideas in English, and handle themselves in various cross-cultural business situations.
--	--

Course Syllabus
-----------------	--

* (Learning Outcomes)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 2. 3. 4. 5.
---	--

*

(Class Schedule & Requirements)

	Marketing	4
	Jobs & Careers	4
	Business Presentation	4

* (Grading)	50%	20%	30%
* (Textbooks & Other Materials)	11	11	11	11	11	11
More
Notes

1 *

2 300-500